Emails from purchasers of 2013 pups:

Hi Luke and Julie,

Barley is doing great! She may be one of the most photographed puppies in Portland... and I'm not talking about all the pics I've been taking! People literally stop us to take pictures and videos of her!

She is adjusting well to apartment living (even though she is a farm dog at heart). She loves getting back to her roots (see the attached pic)!

She has made lots of doggie friends in the building and is extremely social with people and kids.

Cheers,

Sascha, Ginger and Barley

Hey Luke and Julie,

Finn is turning into one amazing dog. The second day we had him he jumped into a deep lake and swam like he had been doing it for years. Everywhere he goes he acts like a gentleman and people fall in love with him. It's quite adorable. He was crate trained from day one and almost house broken too.

He's also an all-American dog. He loves watching football and baseball.

Hope you all are well, and thanks for the great dog :)
